

Solutions for logistic professionals

SBS Saturn

Description

The Saturn is a high security lock for commercial vehicles. With its high attack resistance it protects your valuable goods or tools against thieves while you work elsewhere.

If you have to leave your vehicle parked while working somewhere else or if you open/close the doors only a few times each day, the Saturn is the lock you need.

It fits side doors as well as rear doors and is available in a set of 2 equal conclusive locks.

Technical information

Materiaal: Steel with nickel

Keuring: TUV and CNPP

- More than 250.000 key combinations
- Tested on cycles of 100.000 opens and closings